

LSO St Lukes
161 Old Street, London, EC1

Home of LSO Discovery, the London Symphony Orchestra's ground-breaking orchestral education programme, LSO St Luke's is a beautiful Grade I listed building in central London offering exceptional contemporary spaces to hire for arts, corporate and private events, including concerts, conferences, parties, dinners and wedding receptions.

Jerwood Hall

Jerwood Hall is the largest space within LSO St Luke's. The original 18th century décor is blended with modern features to create a distinctive and atmospheric setting. A balcony surrounds the higher level of the hall with two stylish spiral staircases that lead down to an attractive wooden floor. The space is brightened by natural light from the delightful Baroque windows.

Crypt Level

The Crypt Level forms the lower level of LSO St Luke's and provides a range of brilliantly designed spaces that can be used either in unison or separately from the Jerwood Hall.

Cloze Rooms

Both Cloze Rooms are versatile and are equipped with state-of-the-art communications technology. They can be used as separate rooms and are suitable for seating in boardroom or theatre style.
