

Stationers' Hall

Ave Maria Lane, London, EC4M 7DD

Stationers' Hall is a grade 1 listed building, completed in 1673 after the great fire of London. It provides a blend of history, tradition and gracious hospitality in the City of London. Ideally located close to St. Paul's, Stationers' Hall offers an exclusive range of charming and historic rooms of individual character.

These inter-linking rooms can be used independently or as a suite offering great flexibility for events of various sizes, from private luncheons for up to 20 in the elegant Ante-room to formal receptions for 400 in the splendour of the Livery Hall. The Garden is a unique space ideal for summer parties, barbecues and pre-dinner/post conference drinks receptions.

Stationers' Hall has a civil license for marriages and civil partnership ceremonies. The Court Room and the Livery Hall are ideal for this occasion for up to 120 and 200 guests respectively.

The flexibility of the Hall makes it suitable for all styles of events:

- meetings and conferences
- barbecues
- road shows
- Christmas and summer parties
- weddings
- formal lunches and dinners
- receptions
