

Waterman's Hall
St-Mary-at-Hill, London, EC3R 8EF

Located on St-Mary-at-Hill, near the Monument, Pudding Lane and within the City of London, Watermen's Hall offers elegance, style and heritage combined with a unique, modern approach to customer service.

This beautiful Hall dates back to 1780 and remains the only original Georgian Hall in the City of London. It was designed by William Blackburn and is a perfect example of eighteenth century domestic architecture.

The Hall was extended in 1983 to include a more substantial dining and meeting facility, the Freeman's Room, which blends in perfectly with the intimate atmosphere of the Court Room and Parlour to form a suite of rooms that are both elegant and adaptable to modern day requirements. The Parlour Room and Silver Room are more suited to smaller events such as meetings but can be used as accompanying or breakout rooms for larger events.

Waterman's Hall is suitable for corporate events, press launches, road shows, wedding receptions or other private functions,
