

Christ Church Spitalfields Venue
Fournier Street, London, E1 6QE

Situated where the City and the East End meet, within 5 minutes walk from Liverpool Street the church has been restored to its original Georgian grandeur and is steeped in history and atmosphere. The building is considered one of Britain's finest examples of Baroque architecture and the restoration has won several architectural awards.

The Nave, with its pillars reaching to lofty ornate ceilings, tall arched windows and elegant stone floor, offers an elegant and creative space for a variety of events. It also boasts stunning features such as crystal chandeliers and oak panelled walls and balconies. This grand room is a fitting venue for any occasion and is highly sought after.

The Old Vestry Room has spectacular views down Brushfield Street to the City and the old fire place is a much loved feature. This enchanting room is often used during the day for board meetings and private lunches. The Old Vestry Room compliments hire of the Nave or can be hired separately. Christ Church Spitalfields is indeed a venue where every event becomes a unique experience.
