

Bloomsbury Ballroom

Bloomsbury Square, London, WC1B 4DA

London's unique and most opulent Art Deco venue is a versatile venue for a variety of events from corporate to weddings, film shoots to barmitzvahs and charity balls to concerts. The venue also has a wedding licence for civil weddings.

With a stunning design by Shaun Clarkson, the ballroom is one of London's most exciting new venues. The space itself comprises an impressive ballroom with its own stage, the attached Crush and Long bars, catering facilities, and, state of the art lighting and sound systems.

The venue can hold numbers from as few as 80 for cocktails, 250 for a seated dinner or 800 for a live concert - it has great versatility and flexibility.

Situated between Holborn and Russell Square tube stations, the building's neo classical façade forms the complete east side of Bloomsbury Square.

Capacities:

	Reception	Dinner	Ceremony
The Ballroom	500	250	300

The Ballroom can also accommodate 800 for a live concert.
