

Alexandra Palace
Alexandra Palace Way, London, N22 7AY

Alexandra Palace is a unique venue, set within an unrivalled 196 acres of delightful parkland offering breath-taking panoramic views across the City.

A versatile and flexible venue with 13,000m² of excellent multi-purpose pillar free halls and distinctive function rooms providing limitless possibilities for luxurious banquets, major conferences, large-scale exhibitions, concerts, product launches, presentations and themed hospitality events.

The elegant Great Hall can comfortably cater for a lavish 5,000 seated banquet, 7,250 major conference or 10,250 for a standing concert. Alternatively we welcome smaller events for as few as 10 in one of our distinctive function rooms.

Home to the original BBC TV studios and with many atmospheric original features intact, Alexandra Palace is also popular as a backdrop for film, TV and photography.

With 196 acres of parkland, its own ice rink, pitch and putt course and boating lake, unusual corporate team building and activity days are also available. There is plenty of free parking and good direct transport links into central London.
