

Carpenters' Hall

Throgmorton Avenue, London, EC2N 2JJ

The Carpenters' Company can trace its origins to the thirteenth century as a medieval trade guild established to look after the welfare and interests of carpenters living and working in London. Carpenters' Company has been based on London wall since its first Hall was built in 1429.

The Carpenters' Company has been based on London Wall since its first Hall was built there in 1429. Since that time, there have been three Halls. The current Hall was opened in 1960.

From medieval times Carpenters' Hall has been used by groups and organisations to meet and entertain, including other guilds.

Today, the Carpenters' Company continues this long tradition and welcomes inquiries from those interested in hiring the Hall.
