

Victoria and Albert Museum
Cromwell Road, London, SW7 2RL

Not only is the Victoria and Albert Museum one of the world's great museums, it is also a magnificent Victorian building with remarkable rooms that offer many possibilities for entertaining in a prestigious central London location.

A variety of options for entertaining are available, including evening receptions and dinners with a private view of current exhibitions, some of which are detailed below.

The spectacular Domed Entrance is an elegant and impressive setting for receptions, dinners and dinner-dances. With its soaring domed ceiling, classical architecture and marble floors, it is a unique backdrop for entertaining.

An oasis of tranquillity, the John Madejski Garden provides a beautiful setting for summer receptions.

The largest and most prestigious space in the museum, the Raphael Gallery houses some of the most important surviving examples of Renaissance art in the world.

The Edwin & Susan Davies Paintings Gallery is a new suite of five galleries displaying 200 works from the V&A's extensive paintings collection and is available for drinks receptions. The collection includes paintings by Constable, Turner and Gainsborough.
