

II Bottaccio

Grosvenor Place, London, SW1X 7SH

This important and well-established venue enjoys a prime location in central London. The combination of its two entrances and number of rooms offers great flexibility. The venue has an unrivalled track record in hosting many different types of events, from private dining functions and receptions to major corporate events and conferences. The venue exudes an ambience of luxury and taste, each in its own unique way.

Particularly suitable for larger events, the Grand Gallery is a very beautiful room with high ceilings, white walls, large windows and stunning marble fireplaces and is ideal for a classically stylish reception or the room can be transformed with lighting, staging and entertainment into any atmosphere that you desire.

The Club Gallery, decorated with traditional oak paneling and overhead wine racks perfectly suits a wine tasting or pre-party champagne reception.

The gallery spaces are joined by a majestic marble staircase, and can be lighted with candles on each stair and decorated with beautiful flowers on the landing.
