

The Fleming Collection
Berkeley Street, London, W1J 8DU

Situated in the heart of Mayfair The Fleming Collection's intimate and beautifully designed gallery space is a striking alternative to the City's traditional corporate venues.

A charitable art organisation since 2000 the collection started as the corporate art collection at Flemings Bank. The gallery opened in January 2002 and holds regular displays of selected works from the collection exploring different aspects of Scottish art. The collection comprises of oils and watercolours, with paintings dating from 1770 to the present day, although the bulk is 20th Century art. This venue offers the unique opportunity to host an event in the surrounds of exquisitely curated exhibitions.

Many major financial institutions and law firms use the gallery to treat their clients to drinks receptions and dinners or to give breakfast presentations, lectures and Monday lunches. The city history, central location and the extensive press coverage the exhibitions create ensure great events.
